

Dale Van Vleck to be Inducted into ARS Science Hall of Fame.

Dr. Dale Van Vleck, retired USDA-ARS scientist and Professor Emeritus of Animal Science, will be honored in September as one of three individuals who will be inducted into the national ARS Science Hall of Fame. Dr. Van Vleck was selected for extraordinary contributions to expand quantitative genetic and statistical theory and to develop computational procedures that have impacted generic improvement programs for livestock worldwide.

Link to the USDA-ARS Award Announcement