The nomination should be written in the third person (not "I").

A. Introduction

The introduction should include a paragraph on your background prior to college and your plans upon graduation.

B. Scholarship (35%)

1. Grades (given in terms of grade point average, percent, etc., and a short explanation of systems used by school should be included). An official transcript of college grades must accompany the entry. The transcript of grades (GPA) should end with the fall semester or winter quarter, since the nomination is due by June 1 (before some schools finish the spring term). Scoring this category will be as follows: (GPA obtained/GPA possible) x 35

2. Awards:

3. Standing in class

C. Summary of Block & Bridle Activities (45%)

This is best presented by year starting with the freshman year. Judges say they can judge it best if it is in a list or outline form rather than in paragraph. List the offices and committee chairmanships first, then the other committees the students served on each year. Also list the activities assisted with. If a student was responsible for a new activity, say so. If the student was a judging team member, please indicate so and list the actual contests judged in. Give individual rank in contest if they ranked fairly high. Be thorough and complete. A judge cannot give a person credit if it is not listed or explained.
